

Greendale 7th Grade General Music

Fall 2015

Dear Parent and Student,

Welcome to the Fall 2015 Semester! I am looking forward to having your child in class this semester. I ask that both student and parent or guardian read this document and keep it for your records. On the attached sheet, fill in the requested information, sign it and return it to me by Monday, September 14th. Please have your student bring the required materials to class by this date also. Please do not hesitate to contact me for any reason. Best wishes to you for a rewarding and musical year.

REQUIRED MATERIALS

1. Folder
2. Pencil
3. Chromebook

GRADING SYSTEM

There are three areas that will be graded. They are as follows:

DAILY ASSIGNMENTS

Throughout the semester, you will be given assignments to be completed in class. These will include daily journal questions. Work that is turned in with no name and work that is turned in late will lose points.

PARTICIPATION

Throughout the course of this class, you will be expected to always do your very best. In this category, you will be graded on getting to class on time, having necessary materials in class each day, cooperation and overall effort. There are a possible 3 points for participation every day. Points will be lost for not following directions.

TESTS and PROJECTS

There will be several tests and projects during the semester.

CURRICULUM

This class will focus on careers in music, including performing, song writing, producing, and more.

7th Grade General Music

Please return this page to Mrs. Olszewski in class by September 14th.
